Emailul din data de 29 Martie 2013 prin care se accepta includerea revistei in EBSCO:

Good afternoon

I hope that you are well. I come with the great news that the product team completed their review. We can proceed with these additional titles.

I attached the amendment that would accomplish this. This would add the titles to our existing agreement from August 2010.

Feel free to send this to me by email, fax or post at any time. The process can begin at that time.

Thank you again and Happy Easter!

Regards
